TCYSA Online Coaching Clinic

Tuesday, June 9th from 6:00-7:30

TCYSA Coaches:

I hope this email finds you well. These are certainly trying times and I look forward to getting back out on the field when safe to do so. To continue coaching education there will be a free online coaching clinic to discuss the topic: Leading the Player. This topic is meant to give you ideas of how to work with individual players within a team environment. We will also take time to develop an Individual Development Plan that can be used once team activities resume. Coaches of all experience levels are welcome!

For registration please email development@thurstoncountysoccer.com. You will need to pre-register to aget the zoom information.
